THE EVENT

- Clear Fork Empty Bowls is a soup luncheon/fundraiser designed to help combat hunger in our Bellville and Butler communities. The meal is simple but delicious – soup, bread and a cookie, all donated by local restaurants and markets. Guests can choose and keep a beautifully hand-painted bowl, taken home as an unspoken reminder of the empty bowls that have yet to be filled throughout our community. Funds raised through this event will benefit the Bellville Neighborhood Outreach Center (BNOC), serving neighbors throughout the Clear Fork Valley.

THE DETAILS

- Sunday, November 3, 2019
- 11:30am – 1:30pm
- Clear Fork High School Cafeteria, 987 OH-97, Bellville
- Tickets are available at the door for suggested donations of $15 for adults (includes hand-painted bowl) and $5 for children under 13 (includes disposable bowl).

THE BOWLS

- After the one-of-a-kind bowls have been painted/glazed during several free painting sessions held at the BNOC, they are professionally kiln-fired by the Mansfield Art Center. Adults and children alike have participated in the bowl painting as a service project, including many school and church groups, youth sports teams and clubs, as well as groups of friends or family members.

THE FOOD

- A simple meal is provided by local chefs, restaurants and businesses, including Black Dog Tavern, Brumby's, Der Dutchman, Fast Eddie's Pizza, Stoodts Market, V&M Family Restaurant, and Wishmaker House.

THE SPONSORS

- Generous Sponsors have helped ensure the success of Clear Fork Empty Bowls 2019; they are Mansfield Art Center, Terra Valley Excavating, Weekley Chrysler Jeep Dodge Ram, Beachy Family Chiropractic, Edward Jones Investments, Elite Insurance, Hursh Drug Bellville, Darr Chiropractic, Main Culture Salon, Mechanics Bank, Wilson Family Realty, Wise Construction, Rustik Market, Smith's True Value, Snyder Funeral Homes, Wade Gardens, ClearFit Nutrition, Elzy Milling and Trade, and US Bank.

THE MISSION

- Event proceeds will benefit the Bellville Neighborhood Outreach Center (BNOC), whose mission is to support and enrich the lives of Clear Fork Valley residents by developing and operating a community service center. The center includes a Food Pantry, a Clothesline, and an Activity Center. The BNOC strives to provide those in need with some of life's essential items including food and clothing.
